1. The Communist faction in the Union de Trabajadores Ferrocarrileros (UTF) has reportedly aligned that organization with the Communist-dominated, semi-clandestine Comité de Reorganización Obrera (CRO). This issue had been hotly debated in recent meetings of the UTF, with the result that the extreme left wing finally convinced the moderates that the interests of the UTF could be better served under the leadership of the CRO.
2. The Communists are now hopeful that the Union de Empleados de Comercio and the Union de Trabajadores de Empresas Electricas will follow the UTF into the CRO. In the past, the two former unions have had a close working agreement with the UTF.
